

The Goodland Republic.

ESTABLISHED 1886.

GOODLAND, KANSAS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1901.

NO. 51.

TAX LEVIES HIGHER FOR 1901.

In Goodland the Levy Will Be 92 Mills as Against 75 1/2 for Last Year—Two Mills for County High School.

The county commissioners were in session Monday fixing tax levies for 1901. The city council made levies for Goodland at their session Tuesday night while the board of education performed this function for district No. 1 Monday. Taken altogether the levy in Goodland will be 92 mills for 1901 as against 75 1/2 for 1900, a raise of 16 1/2 mills. In the country, however, the levy will be about the same as last year; the raise in Goodland being in the city interest and sinking funds.

Following are the levies in mills with those of last year:

	1900.	1901.
State	50	50
County	10	10
City	10	10
Sinking	4	4
Goodland	10	10
County high school	2	2
Goodland city	10	10
School district No. 1	10	10
Sinking interest	10	10
Goodland	10	10
Interest on warrants	10	10
Totals	102	102

Maidrow.

The Epworth League ice cream social and business meeting was held Wednesday evening at the residence of E. W. Albright. It speaks well of our facilities for transmitting news to say that on one day's notice everybody within a radius of ten miles was notified of the event and a crowd of 125 people were gathered. Mr. and Mrs. Albright and the league arrangement committee improvised a convention hall with three departments for the accommodation of the crowd. The business of the evening consisted of electing two delegates and alternates to attend the district convention at Alma and in taking up a collection for the use of the society. Miss Fannie Albright and Miss Etta McDaniel were elected delegates and R. A. Smith and H. H. Haynes alternates. Mr. C. James, of Quickville, and E. C. Mewhirer entertained the audience with short addresses while the proceedings of the evening were interspersed with some excellent music. Ice cream and cake were served to all and it was evident from the pleasing expressions and the good will manifested that everybody enjoyed themselves, and that the event was a decided success.

Mrs. C. Albright and Mrs. R. A. Smith were at Goodland Friday.

Ira Austin, of Edison, was in this vicinity Thursday and put in an application for the Maidrow school.

A. Mersinger, who has been visiting friends in Lincoln county the last few days, returned home Saturday. His brother came home with him and will visit with his folks here for a short time.

We had another shower Saturday night.

Miss Gertrude Hutchison returned to her home at Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Jackson's, from Rawlins county, last week.

The Epworth League Sunday night was one of the most interesting sessions that has been held since it was organized. Miss Fannie Albright was the leader. There was a large audience present.

L. D. Gillespie has secured the job of teaching the New Hope school the coming term.

C. E. Payson bought a stack of straw of W. Turner this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Dillinger were Goodland visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mewhirer and Miss Florence Shuckeloff of Brewster, Miss Grace Barnett, of Goodland, and Mrs. Austin, of Edison, were visitors at the league Sunday evening.

Will Stone was in this vicinity buying fat cows and heifers the last of the week. He shipped a carload out of Brewster Tuesday to Denver. Those who look out for their own interests were J. M. Mann, three head; C. E. Payson, two head; A. H. Grimes, one head; Mr. Gilbert, two head; E. C. Mewhirer, three head.

John Johnson had to cease threshing Monday on account of a break-down.

T. C. Shipman and E. B. Wilson went to Colby Tuesday. They returned the next day.

Mrs. William Truchsel visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood several days this week.

A. R. Shipman lost a valuable cow Wednesday from eating green corn.

Misses Edna and Josie Bell, of Lemon, Col., are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gummere.

J. W. Hall and Thomas Butt attended Sunday school at the Kips school house Sunday.

West Brona, began threshing for C. Warner Monday.

Mrs. Mary Morey and daughter, Daisy, were callers at Grandma Kips's Monday.

Grandma Kips, who has been sick the past five weeks, continues much the same.

There will be meeting at Edison Saturday afternoon and evening, and at Kips Sunday morning and evening.

A Sunday school convention will be held at the Kips school house August 25. The following is the program:

Song by congregation; invocation; Thomas Butt; song by congregation; "The Sunday School," Rev. McPherson; "Object of the Sunday School," D. B. Dillinger; "Can I Afford to Stay Away from Sunday School?" J. R. Shipman; song by Kips school; "How Can I Best Retain the Attention of My Class?" Mrs. J. R. Shipman; "Benefits Received by Sunday School Scholars," Mary Pank; song by congregation.

See the Wizard throughout 1901.

TOLD IN A LINE.

Farmers all over the state object to the sun popping corn on their premises.

It has come to pass in Kansas that the short grass shall be long and the long grass short.

Kansas will contribute its full quota, and more, of hand-press newspaper shops in the new Oklahoma district.

Atchison has given up the idea of a corn carnival this year. It was either that or use canned corn to decorate with.

Kansas is somewhat humiliated by the fact that it may have to import corn from New England for "husking bees."

The Iowa Register says that it seems probable that those good souls who have been saving money for a rainy day will all die rich.

An Atchison man who drew a blank at El Reno is going to bring home a centipede. A Kansan who gets left all together is a rare article.

A man by the name of Cool has been arrested in southern Kansas for running a joint. The sheriff there is in luck—he can probably keep Cool.

An exchange says that the children of Israel did not starve in the desert because of the sand-which is (sandwiches) there. Noah sent Ham into the wilderness and his descendants mustered and bled.

Deadhead, as denoting one who has free entrance to places of amusement, comes from Pompeii, where the checks for free admission were small ivory death's heads. Specimens of these are in the museum at Naples.

"Who shall wear a feather but he who has killed a Turk" was an old Hungarian saying, and the number of feathers in his cap indicated how many Turks the man had killed. Hence the origin of the saying with reference to a feather in one's cap.

A Norton paper declares the devil was seen in that town the other day, fanning himself and carrying a hunk of ice under his arm. He told the reporter that if the weather didn't let up he intended going home that night.

The time for the physicians of the state to register under the new medical law expired July 1. The physicians who do not hold diplomas from reputable medical colleges must now pass examinations before they will be granted a certificate by the board. All physicians in the state who do not hold certificates from the state board of September 1 must discontinue practicing. Final examinations will be held in Topeka, Wichita and Pittsburg on August 13.

There is a firm out in Oregon whose sign reads, "Million & Million, Bankers." They are brothers and one of them bears the peculiar name of Ten Million. His father was a man of humor, who named his children after the numerals, One Million, Two Million, Three Million, and so on until Ten Million was reached. In Connecticut there is a family by the name of Miles, who christened their children in an absurd way—One Miles, Two Miles, Five Miles, and so on until Eight Miles was reached. They naturally suffered a great deal of ridicule.

THE HEADLINE WRITER.

Visitor Thought He Was Suffering From Delirium Tremens, But It Was Only a Headwriter's Brain Racking.

The young man with the haggard look sat in the rear car of the elevated train, staring and staring at one of the advertisements.

"English beauty shoes," he mumbled to his companion. "That's what he says."

"Yes," said the other, "but that's too short."

"H'm, h'm," the haggard man replied. "Beautiful shoes from England."

"That won't fit; it's long," was the curt reply.

"Well, then, 'Beautiful English shoes'—"

"That's only three words. You've got to have four, you know."

"That's so, that's so—ah, I have it!" he cried so loud that all the other passengers in the car gave a jump. "English shoes of beauty"—23 letters and spaces at last!

A compassionate old man looked up from his newspaper.

"What's the matter with your friend?" he asked. "Is the chap suffering from delirium tremens?"

"Oh, no," the man addressed replied absently. "You see, he's just got through with his night's work on a morning newspaper. He's a headline writer, you know, and after a fellow has scribbled off headlines of 23 letters and spaces for about eight hours steady he contracts that habit and can't get over it. Every advertisement, every scrap of paper he sees for several hours afterward until his mind gets rested—well, he begins to count the letters and spaces and turn the wording into a headline that will fit. It isn't exactly delirium tremens. It's something worse—the headlines of 23 letters and spaces go giggling around in that poor over-worked brain much worse than snakes."—Chicago Chronicle.

DIED AWAY FROM HOME.

Charles Testerman, a Barber from Nevada, Who Came to Goodland to Work But Met Death Instead.

Charles Testerman came to Goodland July 27 from Nevada, Mo., to work at his trade in the Blodgett barber shop.

He worked only a few days when he was taken sick and confined to his room at the Commercial hotel, and Dr. Galick was called to attend him. Testerman felt much better Sunday and in spite of the doctors orders to remain quiet got up and ate a hearty dinner and worked at the barber's chair all day Monday. Tuesday morning the young man suffered a relapse and Dr. Galick called Dr. Smith in consultation. The doctors found that an acute case of peritonitis had developed and opinioned that the patient could not live more than 24 hours. Testerman's father was telegraphed to come, but the son passed away Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Charles Testerman was a young man of not more than 21 years, and was married. He carried insurance in the A. O. U. W., but how much could not be learned. The body was embalmed and the father arrived Thursday and took the remains to Nevada for burial.

YOUNG DOCTOR IN TROUBLE.

O. S. Taylor, of Menlo, Kan., Arrested as a Suspect of the Assault Upon Miss Cora Parrott Near Colby, July 20.

O. S. Taylor was arrested at Menlo, Thomas county, Kan., Monday, suspected of being the man who committed the outrage upon Miss Cora Parrott near Colby on the night of July 20. Taylor is a young man of about 35 years, and has been practicing medicine and running a drug store at Menlo in partnership with his father. Young Taylor has been shadowed by a detective for some time and was preparing to leave when arrested. He claims to be able to prove an alibi, and Simpson Parrott, father of the injured girl, and Sam Pratt, of Colby, were in Goodland Tuesday investigating the truthfulness of an assertion by Taylor that he visited certain resorts in Goodland the night the crime was committed.

Fought Over a Quarter of Lamb.

H. E. Pettibone and D. V. Johnson, neighbors living near Kanorado, got into a dispute last Wednesday over the title to a quarter section of land. The argument became heated and the men came to blows. Johnson came to Goodland Thursday and entered complaint against Pettibone, charging him with assault to do great bodily injury, and also asked that the defendant be put under bonds to keep the peace.

Mr. Pettibone readily gave the peace bond before Justice Robinson, and the preliminary hearing on the charge of assault was set for August 15. He also gave bond for his appearance at that time. In the absence of County Attorney Andrews, Fred E. Barnett drew up the complaint.

Goodland Kids Beat St. Francis.

The Goodland and St. Francis kid nines played ball on the local grounds last Thursday afternoon, the Goodland boys winning out by a score of 17 to 5. The game was close and hotly contested up to the seventh inning when the St. Francis youths developed a bad case of rattles and proceeded to do a balloon ascension act. They remained up in the air during the eighth and when they finally made their parachute leap the Goodland boys had chalked up eight runs. Score by innings:

Goodland.....1 1 1 3 0 3 3 6-17

St. Francis.....1 0 0 2 1 0 0 5-17

Batteries: Goodland, Greener and Rice; St. Francis, Hogue and Day.

Traded for a Missouri Farm.

Crist Meints has traded his three quarter sections of land in Smoky township, valued at $3,000, for a 120 acre farm near Nevada, Mo. Mr. Meints also paid $1,000 cash in the transaction. The farm he secured is said to be an excellent one, but the crop this year was a total failure with the exception of apples. Mr. Meints gets the late apples, and will leave for Missouri soon and locate on the farm.

Set Horse Against Bears.

There was a novel pony race just north of town Saturday afternoon. The course was a quarter mile straightaway and the stake horse against horse—the winner to take the losers pony. Charles Thorsen, of Goodland, and James Jones, who lives south of Raleton, were the contestants and Charley was unhorsed.

C. C. Young, formerly proprietor of the Brick hotel, was in Goodland Saturday. Mr. Young is now located at Seattle, Wash., and is much pleased with the country. He reports Mrs. Young in excellent health.

Miss Laurene Walker's little Shetland pony died Saturday night at the age of two years, of cold, caused by eating too much green hay. The pony weighed less than 200 pounds and was very gentle, being driven about town to a small little trap by Miss Laurene, and she feels the loss keenly.

W. N. Rowe and M. D. Cuthbertson, of Goodland, A. Winn and William Schell, of Raleton, and H. J. Pletcher, of Raleton, will start on a hunting trip to the mountains about August 15, to be gone two months. They will have two wagons and will hunt and fish on the Bear river valley.

H. E. DonCarlos, of Lincoln, Neb., stopped off at Goodland Saturday on his way to Colorado. His family has been out to the mountains for some time and he was on his way to join them. Mr. DonCarlos was in the real estate business in Goodland in the early days, but is now with the Iowa and Trust company at Lincoln.

William Trout, mail carrier from Goodland to St. Francis, brought in a boy of about eight years that he picked up near the county line on his return trip Monday. The boy is an adopted son of J. A. Spencer, who lives on the north edge of Sherman county, and Spencer had gone away to work for the day and left the boy at home to watch the cattle. The little fellow became lonesome and walked out to the road and asked Mr. Trout
